Is the Spirit of Columbia the Head Demon Over the United States? Is this Demon Referenced in Biblical Prophecy?

One of the teachings of the Bible that I have referenced frequently in my writings is that the entire world system, particularly its political and financial systems, is all part of Satan's kingdom.

This is the system that all of us are born into naturally, and to escape this demonic system, we have to be "born again" spiritually to enter into the Kingdom of God, ruled by Jesus Christ.

We are then called the "children of God," because of our rebirth spiritually.

We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one. We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true—even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (1 John 5:19–20)

When Jesus Christ allowed himself to be executed to fulfill prophecy, he redeemed the entire human race and passed judgment on Satan and his demonic hierarchy who rule the world.

See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ.

*For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form, and you have been given fullness in Christ, who is the head over every power and authority.

In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature, not with a circumcision done by the hands of men but with the circumcision done by Christ, having been buried with him in baptism and raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having canceled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross.

And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross. (Colossians 2:8-15)

The Greek words in the original text of the Bible that refer to Satan and his administration, are usually translated with English words such as “power” and “authorities.”

Jesus defeated them at the cross by his voluntary sacrifice, ruling against them in the court of justice in the spiritual realm, allowing anyone who so chooses to leave Satan’s kingdom and join the Kingdom of God under the New Covenant through the rebirth.

“The prince of this world now stands condemned.” (Words of Jesus recorded in John 16:11)

Satan and his administration, however, have yet to be sentenced to their punishment, which the Bible explains to us will still happen at a future date. Until that time, they still rule the world system.

Occasionally, the Biblical texts give us an indication as to who these “powers and authorities” are in Satan’s kingdom.

One of those places is in the Book of Daniel, where it is recorded that each major geopolitical nation has its own head demon, referred to as a “Prince”, apparently using this title in their ranking before Satan. This would imply that these “princes” are among the highest ranking demons ruling on earth, answering directly to Satan himself.

A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. He said, "Daniel, you who are highly esteemed, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you."

And when he said this to me, I stood up trembling.

Then he continued, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them.

But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia.

Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come."

While he was saying this to me, I bowed with my face toward the ground and was speechless. Then one who looked like a man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak.

I said to the one standing before me, "I am overcome with anguish because of the vision, my lord, and I am helpless. How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone and I can hardly breathe."

Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength. “Do not be afraid, O man highly esteemed,” he said.

“Peace! Be strong now; be strong.” When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength.”

So he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come; but first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one supports me against them except Michael, your prince.” (Daniel 10:10-21)

We see two head demons referenced in this section, one identified as the “Prince of Persia” and one referred to as the “Prince of Greece.”

One good angel serving in the Kingdom of God is also mentioned as a “chief prince”, Michael. Michael is mentioned again the book of Revelation:

And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him. (Revelation 12:7-9)

So what about the United States of America, which is a modern-day country that did not exist when the Bible was written?

First, one needs to understand that the USA was founded by Satanic Freemasons and has always been ruled by Satanic rulers who are all part of Freemasonry. Since our founding in 1776, the goal of the U.S. was to become the center of the New World Order.

I dealt with this more extensively in my last article published in 2022:

Year 2023: Will America Fulfill Its Destiny? Jesus Christ is the Only “Transhuman” the World Has Ever Seen or Will Ever See

American Christians have been taught that the USA was founded as a “Christian Country.” And I don’t necessarily disagree with that belief, because I understand that the Christian religion, along with ALL of the world’s religions, is part of the Satanic world system run by Freemasons. See:

Fact Check: “Christianity” and the Christian Religion is NOT Found in the Bible – The Person Jesus Christ Is

It makes sense, therefore, that today in 2023 as the U.S. is entering its last stages of being the world’s last remaining “superpower”, that there is a national demonic power who rules most of the world today as one of the most powerful demons in the world, perhaps only second in command to Satan himself. It is also possible that Satan’s physical location where he dwells on earth is also in the U.S. today.

I believe that the name of this demon who is the head demon over the U.S., is a female spirit that is named Columbia.

This painting shows “Manifest Destiny” (the belief that the United States should expand from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. In 1872 artist John Gast painted a popular scene of people moving west that captured the view of Americans at the time. Called “Spirit of the Frontier” and widely distributed as an engraving portrayed settlers moving west, guided and protected by Columbia (who represents America and is dressed in a Roman toga to represent classical republicanism) and aided by technology (railways, telegraph), driving Native Americans and bison into obscurity. The technology shown in the picture is used to represent the outburst of innovation and invention of modern technology. It is also important to note that Columbia is bringing the “light” as witnessed on the eastern side of the painting as she travels towards the “darkened” west. Image source.

Here is the entry for “Columbia” from the Online Etymology Dictionary:

poetic name for United States of America, earlier for the British colonies there, 1730s, also the nation's female personification, from name of Christopher Columbus (also see Colombia) with Latin "country" ending -ia.

A popular name for places and institutions in the U.S. in the post-Revolutionary years, when former tributes to king and crown were out of fashion: such as Columbia University (New York, U.S.) founded in 1754 as King's College; re-named 1784. Also District of Columbia (1791, as Territory of Columbia); "Hail, Columbia," Joseph Hopkinson's patriotic song that served in 19c. as an unofficial national anthem (1798); "Columbiad," Joel Barlow's attempt to write an epic for the United States (1807). Columbiad also was the name of a heavy, cast-iron, smooth-bore cannon introduced in the U.S. in 1811.

The April 6, 1901 cover of Puck depicts Columbia wearing a warship bearing the words “world power” as her Easter bonnet. Source.

Wikipedia also has an entry on the history of “Columbia” as the national personification of the United States.

Columbia, also known as Miss Columbia, is a female national personification of the United States. It was also a historical name applied to the Americas and to the New World.

The association has given rise to the names of many American places, objects, institutions and companies, including the District of Columbia; Columbia, South Carolina; Columbia University; “Hail, Columbia”; Columbia Rediviva; and the Columbia River.

Images of the Statue of Liberty (Liberty Enlightening the World, erected in 1886) largely displaced personified Columbia as the female symbol of the United States by around 1920, although Lady Liberty was seen as an aspect of Columbia. Columbia’s most prominent display in the 21st Century is as part of the logo of the Hollywood film studio Columbia Pictures.

Columbia is a Neo-Latin toponym, in use since the 1730s with reference to the Thirteen Colonies which formed the United States. It originated from the name of the Genoese explorer Christopher Columbus and from the Latin ending -ia, common in the Latin names of countries (paralleling Britannia, Gallia, Zealandia, and others). (Full article.)

This “Spirit of Columbia” represents the “New World Order”, and its primary meaning is one of “liberty”, which means “freedom.” This is the “spirit” of “America,” as the concept of “liberty” is drilled into those of us who grew up and were educated in the United States.

We have been taught to believe that it is our value of “liberty” that makes us superior to all other nations, and the nations that follow the United States are often referred to as

“the Free World.”

This begs the question, “freedom” from what?

Well, from the view of Satan and the Freemasons, it would mean “freedom from God” and the constraints of morality. Those who embrace this message of “liberty” are the “enlightened ones” even though in reality, according to the Bible, this concept of “freedom” results in slavery, and slaves to Satan and his world system.

You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world is hatred toward God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God. (James 4:4)

According to the teachings of the New Testament, true “liberty” or freedom is found only in Jesus Christ.

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed” (Words of Jesus in Luke 4:18).

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery. (Galatians 5:1)

Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

I know you are Abraham's descendants. Yet you are ready to kill me, because you have no room for my word. I am telling you what I have seen in the Father's presence, and you do what you have heard from your father." (John 8:34-38)

Anyone else who claims to offer "freedom" is actually a slave to Satan and his world system.

These men are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them. For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to the lustful desires of sinful human nature, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error.

They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity—for a man is a slave to whatever has mastered him. (2 Peter 2:17-19)

Image source. Notice the font type of the letter “A”.

This demonic value of “freedom” in the “free world” has been used for many decades now as an excuse for war to force other countries to be “free”, like us. When enemies of the United States attack us, we are told they attack us because they “hate our freedom.”

So we bomb them and destroy their country and their culture, forcing them to be “free” like us.

The representation of this female demonic force is one of the first things visitors to the United States see when they enter through New York, as “Lady Liberty” stands tall to greet everyone who enters the U.S.

And of course the political center of the U.S. is Washington D.C., the “district of Columbia” which is full of Freemason and demonic symbolism throughout this “district” that is obviously controlled by Satanic forces.

The demonic version of “expansionism” in modern days began with the explorer Christopher Columbus, and the concept of “manifest destiny” which was used to take over the land that comprises the United States today by driving out the original inhabitants that already lived here, much like the expansion into Palestine in 1948, by force and by killing the original inhabitants so that the “Jews” could live there.

We can see this portrayed in artist John Gast’s painting (see above) called “Spirit of the Frontier” with Miss Columbia leading the way to the west using technology to “enlighten” the way.

Contrast this to the concept of “expansionism” in the Bible, which is defined as proclaiming the “Good News” about Jesus Christ, so that others can become disciples of Jesus (voluntarily, not by force) and gain real “freedom” from Satan and his world system.

Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” (Matthew 28:18-20)

Demons can go by multiple names, especially when those names are translated into multiple languages.

Two of the main demons referenced in the Bible during the Old Testament period, are “Baal” and “Ashtoreth”.

These are “fertility gods” with the male being “Baal” (and other names like “Molech”), and the female being “Ashteroth” (along with other names).

As Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, and his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been. He followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molech the detestable god of the Ammonites. So Solomon did evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not follow the LORD completely, as David his father had done. (1 Kings 11:4-6)

I think one of the places we encounter Ashteroth again in the Bible, is in Paul's time living in Ephesus, a city that is in modern-day Turkey where Paul spent 2 years teaching.

The "liberty" that Paul was teaching was very different than the "liberty" of the head demon in Ephesus at that time, Artemis.

About that time there arose a great disturbance about the Way. A silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought in no little business for the craftsmen.

He called them together, along with the workmen in related trades, and said: "Men, you know we receive a good income from this business. And you see and hear how this fellow Paul has convinced and led astray large numbers of people here in Ephesus and in practically the whole province of Asia. He says that man-made gods are no gods at all. There is danger not only that our trade will lose its good name, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited, and the goddess herself, who is worshiped throughout the province of Asia and the world, will be robbed of her divine majesty."

When they heard this, they were furious and began shouting: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" Soon the whole city was in an uproar. (Acts 19:23-29)

I have been to Ephesus a few times when I lived in Turkey. It used to be a port city, but today the waterways connecting to Ephesus have long since dried up, and the only thing remaining there today are ruins.

Where did the fertility “goddess” Ashteroth move to?

I think her name is better known now as “Columbia”, or “Liberty”, and her statue is now on Liberty Island in New York City:

Two very prominent references to evil females that are mentioned in the prophetic Book of Revelation are “Jezebel” and “the Prostitute.”

Jezebel was a historical person in the Old Testament writings who was an evil queen married to the wicked King Ahab, but this name was also used by the risen Jesus Christ in his appearance to John in the second chapter of Revelation:

Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols. I have given her time to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling.

So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds. (Revelation 2:20-23)

This was written to the congregation of believers living in Thyatira in the First Century, which today is in western Turkey. It is very interesting that in John’s vision of the resurrected Jesus Christ, contained in Revelation in the Bible, that Jesus addressed 7 congregations that existed during that time, and they were all in Asia Minor (modern day Turkey), and none of them were in Israel, where the city of Jerusalem and its temple were just about to be destroyed in 70 AD.

There are of course many different interpretations of “the end times” as recorded in the prophetic words in Revelation.

The people to whom this “revelation” was given to were these congregations in modern-day Turkey. None of these congregations (or “churches”) exist today, although one of these 7 places, Smyrna, is today Izmir, the 3rd largest city in Turkey where there are some local congregations.

This was the area of the Middle East that the early disciples traveled to as they taught about Jesus, and these early congregations were mixed congregations of both Jewish and Gentile (non-Jewish) believers. It was from this area that the “Good News” (gospel) spread to the rest of the world.

When we read the book of Revelation in the Bible, it is helpful to know who this was written to, and the times and circumstances of that period. John was actually a prisoner at the time on the island of Patmos.

I, John, your brother and partner with you in the oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God’s Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ. I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet saying, “What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.”

Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter; the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lamp stands. The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies. The seven lamp stands are seven assemblies. (Revelation chapter 1.)

So we can see here that Jesus made it clear that what was being revealed had significance for the people living at that time, just before Jerusalem and the temple were about to be destroyed, but that also there were some “things which will happen hereafter.”

The book of Revelation is written in prophetic language and can be interpreted in different ways.

The most predominant view of this prophecy today in regards to what is going to happen in the future is the Dispensationalist modern view, which views the “end times” through the lens of Zionism.

But historically, this was not the predominant view of end time events.

I have the advantage of having received the same academic training as most pastors and teachers in the Zionist churches today, but I am not employed by Corporate Christianity, and have been studying the Bible for over 40 years now.

I can follow the truth wherever it leads, even if it is not popular, because I don't earn my income from writing or teaching on biblical topics. If my readership decreases because my views do not follow the mainstream current views, it does not affect me, because I don't earn any income from the articles published here.

The passage I quoted above about “Jezebel” who called herself a “prophetess” was from Jesus' discourse to the congregation that was in Thyatira which today is in western Turkey. It is entirely possible that this woman represented the female fertility goddess “Ashteroth”. Notice the stern warning of Jesus towards those who followed her ways:

I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds.

Could this be a message to the congregations (“churches”) in the United States today? Could it be that we just saw much of this happen with all the “church” members and their leaders who complied with the COVID-19 “vaccine” mandates where many have now died or been crippled for life? How many children have died over the past few decades because “Christians” followed the evil ways of “Columbia” and inoculated their babies and children with poisonous injections?

Let’s look at another one of Jesus’ addresses to the 7 assemblies in Revelation, the one that was in Pergamum:

“To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write: “He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things: “I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan’s throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn’t deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise. Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth.” (Revelation 2:12-16)

Pergamum today is in Central Turkey, in the Anatolian region. During the days when Revelation was written in the First Century, it was the remnant of the great Phrygia empire between 1200–675 BC.

Stories of the heroic age of Greek mythology tell of several legendary Phrygian kings:

- Gordias, whose Gordian Knot would later be cut by Alexander the Great
- Midas, who turned whatever he touched to gold
- Mygdon, who warred with the Amazons

According to Homer's Iliad, the Phrygians participated in the Trojan War as close allies of the Trojans, fighting against the Achaeans. Phrygian power reached its peak in the late 8th century BC under another, historical, king Midas, who dominated most of western and central Anatolia and rivaled Assyria and Urartu for power in eastern Anatolia. (Source.)

With this history, we can understand why the risen Christ stated that this was where Satan's throne was, and that he "dwelled" there.

(And as a side note, the hat that Miss Columbia sometimes is wearing, such as in the left and right images in the featured image of this article, is referred to as a "Phrygian Cap," which some equate with Freemasonry.)

But just like Ephesus, where "Artemis" once "dwelled" but now is simply ruins, so too the great Phrygian empire lies in ruins in modern day Turkey, and looks like this:

Where might the “dwelling” place for Satan be today?

I would guess it is in the “District of Columbia“, Washington D.C., which is probably the most demonic and evil city on earth today.

Then there is the other reference to a powerful female force in the book of Revelation: The Prostitute, or in some translations The Harlot, which we first encounter in chapter 17.

One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute, who sits on many waters. With her the kings of the earth committed adultery and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries.”

Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a desert.

There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls.

She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominable things and the filth of her adulteries. This title was written on her forehead: MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.

Then the angel said to me: “Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns. The beast, which you saw, once was, now is not, and will come up out of the Abyss and go to his destruction.

The inhabitants of the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the creation of the world will be astonished when they see the beast, because he once was, now is not, and yet will come. This calls for a mind with wisdom. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits. They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for a little while.

The beast who once was, and now is not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction. The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.

They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers.

Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages. The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire.

For God has put it into their hearts to accomplish his purpose by agreeing to give the beast their power to rule, until God’s words are fulfilled. The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.” (Revelation 17:1-18)

There are various explanations and interpretations that guess at who (or what) this entity is referred to as “The Great Prostitute.” It is obviously a female entity, which could easily be “Ashteroth” or “Columbia” today, and while the “great city that rules over the kings of the earth” could have been either Rome or Jerusalem at the time this was written, it most certainly could be referring to Washington D.C. today.

If that is the case, then we could be near to this reference: “They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire.”

School children pledging their allegiance to the United States using the “Bellamy salute.” Full article here.

While I am not claiming to know exactly how events are going to unfold in the “last days” and what role the U.S. will play, I do think that if you believe that the U.S. provides “liberty and justice for all” as you “pledge your allegiance” to this country, you need to wake up and understand that the United States is not worthy of your “allegiance” at all, since you are making a pledge to Satan himself if you choose to do so, and you are far better off pledging your allegiance to the coming King and risen savior, Jesus Christ, who is the only one who can provide true “liberty” and “justice.” See:

To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, “If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” (John 8:31-32)

Columbia: The Great Prostitute of Revived Rome?

“Statute of Freedom” sitting on top of the United States Capitol dome in Washington D.C. Images Source.

by Brian Shilhavy

Last month (November, 2023), I wrote an article where I identified the name of the head demon I believed represented the USA today, which is “Columbia”, a female deity that also goes by “Lady Liberty” or “Freedom” in modern times since the USA was founded in 1776.

In ancient times she has been known by other names, such as “Ashtoreth”, a female fertility “god” known in Old Testament times, or “Artemis”, the name she was given in the New Testament times under the rule of the ancient Roman empire.

It would be helpful to the reader to review that article first, if you have not yet done so, before reading this one, which is a follow-up article to the material I presented there.

Excerpt:

Is the Spirit of Columbia the Head Demon Over the United States? Is this Demon Referenced in Biblical Prophecy?

Another manifestation of this demon of the United States of America is in the “Statute of Freedom” which stands tall on top of the U.S. Capitol dome in Washington D.C., where members of the U.S. Congress meet in the legislative branch of the U.S. government.

Here is a description of this statute:

The Statue of Freedom is a colossal bronze figure standing 19+12 ft (5.9 m) tall and weighing approximately 15,000 pounds (6,800 kg). Her crest peaks at 288 feet (88 m) above the east front plaza of the U.S. Capitol.

She is an allegorical figure whose right hand holds the hilt of a sheathed sword, while a laurel wreath of victory and the Shield of the United States are clasped in her left hand.

Her chiton is secured by a brooch inscribed "U.S." and is partially covered by a heavy, Native American–style fringed blanket thrown over her left shoulder.

She faces east toward the main entrance of the building and the rising Sun. She wears a military helmet adorned with stars and an eagle's head which is itself crowned by an umbrella–like crest of feathers.

Although not actually called "Columbia", she shares many of her iconic characteristics.

Freedom stands atop a cast–iron globe encircled with one of the national mottoes, E pluribus unum (Latin for "Out of many, one.")

The lower part of the base is decorated with fasces and wreaths. Ten spikes are attached to her headdress, shoulders and shield to deter birds from roosting.

Latin was the language of the former Roman Empire, and the District of Columbia in the United States is full of these Latin phrases, as well as Roman architecture.

Look at the Roman columns in the U.S. Capitol building below Columbia, both above the dome as well as at the base.

These Roman columns are found all throughout the U.S. District of Columbia, as well as in front of courthouses and State Capitol buildings all across the United States, and they are temple columns of “The Corinthian Order.”

Here is a description of these Roman columns from the U.S. Government website, Architect of the Capitol, which is “the name of the U.S. legislative branch agency responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of the Capitol campus, as well as the title for the leader of the agency.”

Corinthian columns are the most ornate, slender and sleek of the three Greek orders.

They are distinguished by a decorative, bell-shaped capital with volutes, two rows of acanthus leaves and an elaborate cornice. In many instances, the column is fluted.

Columns in this style can be found inside and outside of the buildings on Capitol Hill, including the U.S. Capitol, the Supreme Court Building, the Russell Senate Office Building, the Cannon House Office Building and the Library of Congress.

The exterior of the Capitol Building contains examples of a modified Corinthian column style, including the East Front center portico and the West Front. On the first floor of the Capitol's House wing is the dramatic, high ceilinged Hall of Columns, which takes its name from the 28 fluted, white marble columns that line the corridor.

The column capitals are a variation on the Corinthian order, incorporating not only classical acanthus leaves but also thistles and native American tobacco plants. Earlier uses of American vegetation in the building's capitals include Benjamin Henry Latrobe's corn cob capitals in a first-floor vestibule and his tobacco-leaf capitals in the Small Senate Rotunda.

The Supreme Court Building was designed in the classical Corinthian architectural style, selected to harmonize with the nearby congressional buildings. Its monumental entrance, facing the U.S. Capitol Building, contains a central temple-like pavilion fronted by a monumental portico with 16 Corinthian marble columns that support an elaborate entablature and pediment.

In the Cannon House Office Building and Russell Senate Office Building, their identical rotundas contain 18 Corinthian columns that support an entablature and a coffered dome, and whose glazed oculus floods the rotunda with natural light. (Source.)

Wikipedia has more information about the Roman Corinthian Order, documenting their use in “Temples”.

Roman Corinthian order

The style developed its own model in Roman practice, following precedents set by the Temple of Mars Ultor in the Forum of Augustus (c.2 AD).

It was employed in southern Gaul at the Maison Carrée, Nîmes and at the comparable Temple of Augustus and Livia at Vienne. Other prime examples noted by Mark Wilson Jones are the lower order of the Basilica Ulpia and the Arch of Trajan at Ancona (both of the reign of Trajan, 98–117 AD), the Column of Phocas (re-erected in Late Antiquity but 2nd century in origin), and the Temple of Bacchus at Baalbek (c.150 AD).

The abacus upon the capital has concave sides to conform to the outscrolling corners of the capital, and it may have a rosette at the center of each side. Corinthian columns were erected on the top level of the Roman Colosseum, holding up the least weight, and also having the slenderest ratio of thickness to height. Their height to width ratio is about 10:1.

One variant is the Tivoli order, found at the Temple of Vesta, Tivoli. The Tivoli order’s Corinthian capital has two rows of acanthus leaves and its abacus is decorated with oversize fleurons in the form of hibiscus flowers with pronounced spiral pistils. The column flutes have flat tops. (Source.)

These Roman columns are still used today with Temples:

This Masonic Temple in the District of Columbia has a replica of a “ziggurat” at the top. I say “replica” because no true ziggurats exist today, only ruins, and along with the Great Pyramids in Egypt, the technology to build such structures no longer exists today. See also:

Dr. John Walton believes that the Tower of Babel was a ziggurat, and this was one possible function of ziggurats that he gives:

The ziggurat was a structure that was built to support the stairway (siminiltu), which was believed to be used by the gods to travel from one realm to the other. It was solely for the convenience of the gods and was maintained in order to provide the deity with the amenities that would refresh him along the way (food, a place to lie and rest, etc.). The stairway led at the top to the gate of the gods, the entrance to the divine abode. Is there really any doubt that the United States is the "revived Roman Empire" which many believe is prophesied in the Bible to be the "Great Prostitute", or that Washington D.C. is at the seat of Freemasonry and Satanism in the world today?

If so, what does biblical prophecy say is going to happen to this "Beast" and the "Great Prostitute" in the "last days"?

Understanding Biblical Prophecy

When it comes to Biblical prophecy, and especially the book of Revelation, sometimes referred to as “the Apocalypse” and is the last book of the Bible written by John, the closest friend to Jesus Christ among the “apostles”, there are very many different opinions and interpretations that have been written over the years.

Revelation was written by John as a vision, and is full of symbolism. The most predominate interpretations of Revelation and Biblical prophecy today come from Dispensationalism, and the Zionist views.

I have already written an exposé on the Zionist cult, showing that it is not based on the writings contained in the Bible:

Exposing the Christian Zionism Cult

Dispensationalist views of prophecy are not the only views published in Biblical commentaries, however, and even within Dispensationalism there are many different variations of views on Biblical prophecy.

The tragedy of teaching on Biblical prophecy, in my opinion, is that almost everyone within Corporate Christianity believes that their view is the only legitimate one, and they are quick to attack others who do not share their views.

Because prophecy deals with future events, I have never myself been dogmatic about any of the popular views, even though I was academically taught Dispensationalism back in the early 1980s. I have frequently stated over the years, especially to those who have wanted to argue or debate this topic, that I could probably win a debate on ANY of these views if I so wanted to, by simply studying the other side and pointing out their flaws.

I am currently studying the Book of Revelation, and the one book I have used over the years to understand all the different historical views on Revelation is Steve Gregg's book, Revelation, Four Views : a Parallel Commentary, which is available on Archive.org for reading for free.

This book is NOT a true commentary, but an explanation of the predominate interpretations of Revelation through the ages. Think of it as an investigative report that Steve Gregg presents to the reader to understand all the different views of Revelation that we currently have in the English language.

Gregg categorizes all the various interpretations of Revelation into four categories: Preterist, Historicist, Futurist, and Spiritual/Idealist.

Here is a description of the four views:

Ask most people — Christian or non-Christian — what they think the book of Revelation is about, and chances are they will tell you it is a book about the “end of the world.”

Chances are, they have never heard any other way to understand this book filled with strange beasts, symbolism and ominous signs of doom. Most people are unaware that there is any other way to understand this mysterious last book of the Bible.

But the futurist view (that Revelation is predicting events yet to be fulfilled) is only one of four traditional Christian ways of looking at the Bible’s most enigmatic book.

These four views are carefully and even-handedly analyzed and then applied to each verse and passage in Revelation: Four Views — A Parallel Commentary, edited by Steve Gregg and published by Thomas Nelson and Sons.

Here is a brief summary of the four approaches Gregg presents.

1. PRETERIST. MOST PROPHECIES IN THE BOOK OF REVELATION WERE FULFILLED DURING THE TIME OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE.

A word of caution here. Not all preterists are created equal. The term preterism can describe two very different approaches: 1) A belief that the text is not inspired prophecy, but is rather a description of certain historical events amidst fanciful apocalyptic imagery. 2) A belief that the prophecies of the book are divinely inspired and were fulfilled mostly in the first centuries after Christ.

The first type of preterist, theologically liberal, advocates a later writing of the book (A.D. 95), and while accepting the historical reality of certain events in the text, believes John's apocalyptic visions were never, and will never be, fulfilled.

The second type of preterist, theologically conservative, believes in an early writing of the book (before A.D. 70). Those who advocate this view point out the correspondence between Revelation and the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. They point to Revelation 1:1, 19, which says that the predicted events must must "shortly come to pass." They also point to Jesus' Olivet Discourse (Matthew 24) as primarily being fulfilled with the fall of Jerusalem to the Romans in A.D. 70.

Most conservative preterists allow, however, that the last chapters of Revelation describe the Second Coming of Christ.

2. HISTORICIST. THE PROPHECIES HAVE BEEN FULFILLED THROUGHOUT HISTORY AND ARE STILL BEING FULFILLED TODAY.

While this interpretation is not widely in use today, those who have been steeped in popular futurist views are often surprised to learn that most of the classic commentaries from a century or more ago are written from a historicist viewpoint. Many of the great leaders of the Reformation and later also held to this view: Wycliffe, Knox, Tyndale, Luther, Calvin, Zwingli, Melancthon, Newton, Huss, Foxe, Wesley, Edwards, Whitfield and Finney.

According to historicists, Revelation is a kind of survey of church history, with historical events symbolically portrayed. Historicists believe that exact time periods are specified, assuming that each day specified in the text equals a year in real time.

The challenge for historicists has been to align actual events with the details in the text (an approach shared by preterists and futurists). This requires large amounts of conjecture, and the flexibility to revise interpretations in light of ongoing world events.

Another prominent feature of Protestant historicism is its belief that the Antichrist of Revelation refers to the Papacy. For this reason, some die-hard historicists assert that all other interpretations of Revelation are Satanically inspired attempts to obscure the Antichrist's true identity.

In any case, historicism has fallen out of vogue. Critics point out that it has not kept up with history much past the 14th century and that it is Eurocentric — not recognizing more recent and significant developments in the church in other parts of the world.

3. FUTURIST. MOST PROPHECIES BEYOND REVELATION 3 ARE YET TO BE FULFILLED.

This is the view held by most contemporary North American evangelical writers and teachers. Somewhat ironically, futurism was originated in 1585 by Francisco Ribeira, a Spanish Jesuit priest, for the purpose of refuting the historicist views of the Protestant reformers.

The most popular version of futurism today is dispensationalism, which has only been around since 1830, when J.N. Darby began teaching his ideas of a secret Rapture of the church (Revelation 4:1) followed by a tribulation period, and a 1,000-year rule of Christ.

Futurists tend to take a literal view of the book of Revelation. Since futurists believe that few, if any, of the events from chapters 4-22 of Revelation have taken place, it is easy for them to assert that most of these prophecies are to be taken literally (whereas preterists, historicists and spiritualists must wrestle with symbolic interpretations of passages about the two witnesses and the four horsemen, for example).

This literal interpretation of the highly symbolic book of Revelation ignores the style of writing God inspired John to use. The first key in understanding literature of any type is to determine the kind (genre) of literature it is.

Revelation is prophecy, letter and apocalyptic — with the apocalyptic style predominating. Apocalyptic style was well known at the time John wrote, using cryptic meanings and symbolic images. Above all, apocalyptic literature is born of immediate persecution and oppression and anticipates the final triumph of good over evil.

Disregarding the language God inspires to convey his message, futurists conveniently avoid having their “this is going to happen in the near future” approach tested by historical events.

Dispensationalists, in particular, can prognosticate freely with the confidence that they will be raptured before the bulk of Revelation is fulfilled and will not be around on earth to be embarrassed by any inaccuracies in their predictions.

On further thought, this approach renders the book irrelevant and of little practical use for most Christians, as they either will have died or will have been raptured before its fulfillment.

4. SPIRITUAL (OR SYMBOLIC OR IDEALIST).
MOST PROPHECIES PORTRAY THE ONGOING COSMIC CONFLICT OF SPIRITUAL REALITIES AND MAY HAVE MANY FULFILLMENTS THROUGHOUT HISTORY.

This actually represents a variety of approaches that look for lessons or principles — often recurrent in history — symbolically depicted in Revelation. Noting the apocalyptic style in which the book is written, this interpretation sees the central theme as the triumph of good over evil, of Christ over Satan. Passages that other approaches regard as depicting chronological events (such as the seals, trumpets and emergence of the beast) are regarded allegorically by spiritualists as recurring realities in history as part of God’s sovereign plan for humankind.

The obvious advantage of this view is that there is no need to match events described in the book to real events. The disadvantage is that the book of Revelation itself claims to predict certain specific events (1:1).

There is a good review written by Ron Maness on this book as well.

In my opinion, to be dogmatic about only one view, is very foolish, and it easily leads to deception, which is what we are viewing in real time today regarding the Zionist view of current events, especially in Gaza and Israel.

To have only one view of this prophecy is to begin your study of it based on dogma, and try to fit everything into your own dogmatic views.

I prefer to look at prophecy more like an investigative journalist, looking for the evidence to support certain views. And the problem with trying to understand prophecy, is that the main evidence, if the prophecy happens in the future, is not yet available to us, and will only be available AFTER these events occur.

Many of the prophecies about the coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ, that were written in the Old Testament, were never fully understood until after Jesus came to earth and fulfilled them.

So it is foolish to claim that one knows exactly how to interpret these prophecies of the future, and that all other views are wrong.

I am going to publish in the rest of this article my own views and opinions, and I want to state right up front that I have my own biases, which will be clearly seen, and that these are my opinions, and that I fully understand that how events actually unfold in the future could be quite different.

But I bring a unique perspective to these prophecies, because even though I was academically taught in one school of thought on these prophecies, I have NOT been employed by Corporate Christianity for over 30 years, and I am not, therefore, financially connected to any of these views. I collect no revenue and no donations for what I write here, so it does not matter to me if you don't agree or do not like what I publish here.

I am writing what I believe the Holy Spirit is revealing to me today, in December of 2023, and viewing these prophecies through the lens of current world affairs that are happening right NOW.

This gives me a clear advantage over most of the commentaries previously written on Revelation, as NONE of them deal with current events that have happened since 2020 and the great COVID Scam, as well as what has happened since October this year, and the Hamas - Israel war.

Also, since I am not employed by Corporate Christianity and am free to study whatever I want, I have NOT studied "Theology" and "Christian teaching" for over 40 years, and have instead studied, and earned my living from: teaching English, teaching technology, understanding nutrition and the corruption of the U.S. Government in their dietary advice, understanding the evil premises of the medical system and their drugs and vaccines, understanding child trafficking through the U.S. Government and Corporate Christianity, etc.

Through all of this I have studied the Scriptures to guide me, and I am now in my mid-60s with over 40 years of studying the Bible.

Very few, if any, of these commentators on Revelation, or those who preach and teach about it in Corporate Christianity today, will teach the kind of things that I have been writing about for over a decade now, such as the Satanic roots to the modern medical system, Freemasonry and how the United States was founded by Freemason Satanists for a “New World Order,” and, especially, how the “Church” and the religion “Christianity” today are NOT found in the Bible, and are not needed at all for the true disciples of Jesus Christ.

When it comes to the book of Revelation in the Bible, I agree with many of the views in the four different schools of thought, but I also believe that most of them miss some very important things that have become much more clear in recent times.

It is important to start Revelation with the fact that this was a real writing written in the First Century with very real applications for those who were alive during those times. I have a lot of respect, therefore, for the Preterist views that much of what was written in the book was fulfilled during the lifetimes of John and his readers, and were fulfilled with the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple in AD 70 by Roman armies, and that some of Revelation was written about the future destruction of what was then “modern day” Rome.

The destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple was indeed the “end of the ages” for those living in Jerusalem and Israel during that time.

Rome

Almost ALL of the various views on Revelation see Rome as significant, and as having a role in what were then “future events” at the time Revelation was written.

Jews who had believed that Jesus was the prophesied Messiah living outside of Israel in the Roman Kingdom were persecuted by the Roman Emperor Nero starting in 64 AD, blaming them for burning down much of Rome, and many of these believers were literally burned at the stake and brutally murdered in Roman colosseums.

Most modern day accounts of this period of history state that Nero was killing “Christians,” but this name was not used of the First Century believers of themselves, but was a name given to the Gentile believers in Antioch.

Most, if not all, of those killed by Nero were Jews, including, according to tradition, Peter and Paul, who were leaders among the Jewish believers.

Luke, who wrote the book of Acts, uses the name “Jews” when referring to Roman persecution during his time:

After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. (Acts 18:1-2)

So, many of the Preterists believe that Nero is referenced in Revelation, many of the Historicists believe it was in the future targeting the “Pope” as the head of Rome, and most the Futurists believe this “Rome” is a future, revived Roman Empire in Western Europe to be revealed in the “last days.”

Most of the Futurists see the reference to “ten horns” representing ten kings in Revelation 17:12, as well as in Daniel 7:24, as rulers of Western European nations that will comprise the “revived Roman Empire.”

When I was in Bible School back in the 1980s, we were taught that this would probably be the European Union, even though at that time there were more than 10 nations who were members of the European Union.

Today, there are more than 20.

My own view, which as I stated above is that the United States is the “Revived Roman Empire”, is that it makes more sense that a 10-nation union will oppose the U.S. where the “beast” sits (see below), and that certainly cannot be Western Europe, as most are members of NATO today and support the U.S.

Is there another current-day 10-nation union that could possibly fulfill this prophecy and challenge the United States and her head demon, Columbia?

Yes, there most certainly is: BRICS. And as of 5 days ago at the time of my writing this, BRICS just became a 10-member alliance.

BRICS was originally a 5-nation alliance consisting of Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa.

Earlier this year (2023) 6 other nations were accepted into the alliance: Argentina, Egypt, Ethiopia, Iran, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates.

This would make 11 nations, but 5 days ago Argentina withdrew from joining.

Does the demonic Lady Columbia hold power over not only the United States, but also the Spanish speaking Latin American countries? One of them is actually named after her (Colombia), and traditionally has been one of the main centers of the illegal drug trade in America.

Brazil is the only non-Spanish speaking country in South America, as they speak Portuguese and apparently did not follow Christopher Columbus like the other American nations.

The “Beast” is Not a Person Called the “Anti-Christ”

In the popular culture, the term “Antichrist” is commonly used to refer to some future world ruler to arise during the “End Times.”

However, a search for the term “Antichrist” in the book of Revelation will return a result of ZERO references.

The term is found in other places of the Bible, in the other writings (besides Revelation) of the apostle John:

Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour.

They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.

But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the truth. I do not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and because no lie comes from the truth.

Who is the liar?

It is the man who denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a man is the antichrist—he denies the Father and the Son. (1 John 2:18-22)

John makes it clear that he is not referring to just one antichrist, but many. They are the “liars,” and Jesus stated that Satan was the “father of lies.”

Satan, or the Devil, is the ultimate Antichrist, and those who follow him can also be referred to “antichrists”.

The idea that Revelation prophecy refers to a one-world ruler as the “Anti-Christ” comes mainly from the Futurists who believe that the “Beast” in Revelation represents one world ruler called the “Anti-Christ.”

But others, including myself, do not believe that. They believe it refers to a worldwide “system” that serves Satan.

Bank of England in London. Source.

In my opinion, this is clearly representing the world's financial system, which in the 18th Century began to be controlled by Freemasons and the Rothschild family banking dynasty.

They are the ones who financed the “British Colonies” and conquest of North America, which birthed the United States of America, the center for the “New World Order” in 1776, and the revived Roman Empire.

The “mark” of U.S. currency on the $1 bill.

I doubt that many would argue the point that the center of the financial system since the end of World War II has been the United States. Most of Europe had to rebuild their economies after the war, but the U.S. mainland escaped any bombing or invasion, and turned their wartime production into dominating the world economic scene.

The “mark” of the “beast” in Revelation clearly points to an economic system:

He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name. This calls for wisdom. If anyone has insight, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is man's number. His number is 666. (Revelation 13:16-18)

This mark is already visible throughout our economic system.

This is on our Bitchute channel.

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/X4ek6oU2fInq/>

As to this mark being on people's "right hand or forehead," I believe this is spiritual, and deal more extensively with that issue in this previously published article:

The Seal and Mark of God is Far More Important than the "Mark of the Beast" - Are You Prepared for What's Coming?

NASA's Artemis Freemason Space Program

Then there is the “second beast” which many also associate with the “false prophet” and the arrogant smaller beast of Daniel 7:8, which works closely as the mouthpiece of the main beast (the financial system) in Revelation 13:

Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon.

He exercised all the authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed.

And he performed great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of men.

Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived.

He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that it could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed. (Revelation 13:11-15)

I think there is strong evidence in modern history that this “second beast” is Big Tech, which is closely aligned with the financial system.

And while I often define “Big Tech” today as consisting of “computer technology” developed since in the 1980s, I think this second “beast” probably began just after WW II and “Operation Paper Clip“, which brought German technologists who developed rockets and bombs to the United States, and also were the origins of NASA.

As I have previously documented, NASA is a Freemason organization that uses demonic names in most of their space programs, such as “Apollo”, “Columbia”, and most recently, “Artemis.” See:

Get to Know NASA’s New Artemis Freemason Space Program

Since the end of 2022, much of computer technology, which is powered by electricity and run by written language, computer “code” and “algorithms”, is being developed in “Large Language Models” (LLMs), which is called “Artificial Intelligence” (AI).

The public is being deceived into thinking that these AI programs can replace humans, but they cannot operate without humans feeding them the language (code) to produce their results.

They are intrinsic to the financial system, and now can actually give this “beast system” actual “voices” based on LLM AI.

The “fatal wound” that Revelation says the beast will suffer and then miraculously recover from, would then be the collapse of the financial system, and its “reset” to digital currencies powered by technology (the second “beast”).

Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image (Central Bank Digital Currencies??) in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. (Revelation 13:14)

The Great Prostitute and “Babylon” is The United States of America – Columbia/Lady Liberty

Since the United States is the “Revived Roman Empire,” can there be any doubt that “the Great Prostitute” and “Babylon” in Revelation is the United States of America?

Here is the description from Revelation 17, and ask yourself which other country this could possibly be referring to besides the United States of America, given current events as they unfolding today?

One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute, who sits on many waters. With her the kings of the earth committed adultery and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries.”

Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a desert. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls.

She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominable things and the filth of her adulteries. This title was written on her forehead: MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.

Then the angel said to me: “Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

The beast, which you saw, once was, now is not, and will come up out of the Abyss and go to his destruction.

The inhabitants of the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the creation of the world will be astonished when they see the beast, because he once was, now is not, and yet will come.

“This calls for a mind with wisdom. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits. They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for a little while.

The beast who once was, and now is not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction.

“The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.

They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers.”

Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages. The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire. For God has put it into their hearts to accomplish his purpose by agreeing to give the beast their power to rule, until God’s words are fulfilled.

The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.” (Revelation 17:1-18)

Only Washington D.C., the district of “Columbia” representing the United States, meets the description today of “the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

Lady Liberty is in trouble. Read Revelation chapter 18.

“Babylon” is the same as the “Great Prostitute”, and its name comes from “Babel” and the “Tower of Babel” story in Genesis chapter 11, the last time there was a One World Government where everyone spoke the same language.

Today, technology allows everyone in the world to speak the same language through translation software, and that technology all originated right here, in the Land of “Liberty.”

The original Babylon, as well as the original Garden of Eden, is believed to be in modern day Iraq by the Euphrates River.

When Lady Liberty invaded Iraq under George Bush from the Bush family oil tycoons of Texas, this is the “Iraq Campaign Medal” that was issued by the Army:

Russia Takes Control of Iraq's Biggest Oil Discovery for 20 Years

Conclusion – Prepare for a Financial Collapse and the New “Marks” of the Beast Financial System Ruled by Big Tech

There is so much more I could write on this, but this article is already the result of days of research, and I am continuing my research. Many things written in the Revelation prophecy make more sense here in 2023, such as “the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness” in Revelation 16, which could be talking about a cyber attack that brings down the electrical grid which would devastate the economy.

Verses such as this one in Revelation 6:

and the stars in the sky fell to earth, as late figs drop from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind. (Revelation 6:13)

could very well be describing the destruction of Elon Musk's thousands of satellites and rockets as they fall to the earth.

As to the second beast (Big Tech) performing "great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of men", this could easily be Direct Energy Weapons (DEWs) that the U.S. military already has, and that some have speculated have been used in recent strange-acting fires, such as the one in Hawaii earlier this year.

Please do not get bogged down in details and arguments and lose site of the bigger picture here. I am writing this humbly and admitting up front that this is my opinion, and that things could work out differently as we rapidly approach a system collapse.

I am not interested in arguing or debating end-time prophecies, as I know this is a passionate topic for so many people.

My purpose in writing this is to warn people of what is probably ahead with the collapse of the financial system, and new "marks" that will be rolled out to participate in the "recovered" beast system after what they are calling the "Great Reset."

The geopolitical scene seems to be set to explode into a full WW III any day now with the conflict in Gaza, and perhaps the most important message I want to communicate to my fellow citizens of the USA is that our country is not the Savior of the World, but just the opposite.

It is the center of demonic and Satanic activity.

It is entirely possible that the first iteration of this "mark" to participate in a new end-times financial system was already rolled out in 2020-2021, with the COVID-19 bioweapon shots that many people submitted to as a mandate to keep their jobs.

Could this perhaps have been the beginning of the “Bowl” judgments in Revelation 16? Notice the description of the first bowl:

Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go, pour out the seven bowls of God’s wrath on the earth.”

The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land, and ugly and painful sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshiped his image. (Revelation 16:1-2)

Diseases of the skin are often symbolic of human disease conditions, such as the use of the word “leprosy” used in Old Testament times. It was also one of the “plagues” inflicted upon the Egyptians before the Hebrew slaves left Egypt.

There were most certainly major diseases of the skin that broke out in people who took the COVID-19 shots, and the rise of “unexplained deaths” continue through today.

Refusing to take this new “mark” of the revived beast financial system that will soon be rolled out might result in your physical death, but it will save your soul in eternity.

Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

All these are the beginning of birth pains. Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me.

At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people.

Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. (Matthew 24:7-13)

The Imminent Demise of Christianity in America: "Come out of her my people lest you share her plagues..."

“Come out of her, my people, lest you take part in her sins, lest you share in her plagues; for her sins are heaped high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.”
(Revelation 18:4-5)

In my last article, I documented how a modern-day interpretation of Biblical prophecy taking into account recent events that have occurred since 2020 and the Great COVID Scam can easily lead one to conclude that the “revived Roman Empire” that many see in the book of Revelation can really only be applied to the United States as “The Great Prostitute” and “Babylon”, which is the object of God’s fierce anger and “last day” judgments against “Babylon”, and “the Beast” which is the financial system.

See:

Is Lady Liberty (Columbia) the “Great Prostitute” of Prophecy Residing in Washington D.C., the Revived Roman Empire to Fall During the “Last Days”

As I write this today, on December 7, 2023, world events are rapidly developing into what many people are referring to as an imminent “doomsday” scenario. These events are unfolding so fast right now, that I just simply do not have time to cover all of them, even though I am staying on top of them.

Here are some of the news items (much of it censored in the U.S. Corporate Media) that have occurred in the past few days that suggest time is short now before major, cataclysmic events erupt:

Israel Lambasts UN Chief For Invoking Article 99 In Rare Move; Pressure Mounts On U.S.

Israel has lashed out at the UN secretary-general for invoking article 99 over the Gaza war. This is the first time in Antonio Guterres' tenure and in five decades that the article has been invoked. The rare and powerful move allows the UN secy-gen to bring any issue seen as threatening international peace to security council's attention. It was invoked last in 1971 during the India-Pakistan crisis that led to the birth of Bangladesh. Israeli Foreign Minister Eli Cohen said that the tenure of Guterres is "a danger to world peace," and his letter shows that he backs Hamas. (Source.)

Putin makes rare trip to Middle East to meet with UAE and Saudi leaders

The Russian leader has been bolstering his partnerships with Gulf nations as Moscow faces growing isolation by the West. Escorted by four fighter jets, Russian President Vladimir Putin has made a rare one-day lightning tour to the Middle East during which he visited Saudi Arabia after a short trip to the United Arab Emirates.

Putin landed on Wednesday in Abu Dhabi, the capital of the UAE, which is hosting the United Nations COP28 climate talks. He was escorted to the presidential palace, where he was greeted with a 21-gun salute and a flyby of UAE military jets trailing smoke in the colours of the Russian flag.

The Gulf nation's President Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan called Putin his "dear friend".

"I am happy to meet you again," Sheikh Mohammed said. He later issued a statement saying they discussed "the importance of strengthening dialogue and cooperation to ensure stability and progress".

The Russian leader echoed those sentiments.

"Our relations, largely due to your position, have reached an unprecedentedly high level," Putin told Sheikh Mohammed. "The UAE is Russia's main trading partner in the Arab world."

Putin then jetted off to Riyadh, where he met Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman Al Saud – their first face-to-face meeting since October 2019.

In introductory remarks shown on Russian television, Putin thanked the crown prince for his invitation, saying he had originally expected MBS to visit Moscow, "but there were changes to plans".

Their next meeting should take place in Moscow, he said, adding: “Nothing can prevent the development of our friendly relations.”

Putin’s meeting with the Saudi crown prince came after oil prices fell, despite a pledge by OPEC+, the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) as well as allies led by Russia, to further reduce output.

However, it was not immediately clear what Putin, who has rarely left Russia since the start of the Ukraine war, intended to raise specifically about oil or geopolitics with the crown prince of the world’s largest crude exporter.

On Thursday, Putin will host the Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi in Moscow. Following that, the UAE will welcome Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov on Friday and Saturday.

Putin’s rare trip to the region is his first since July 2022, when he met Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei in Iran.

The Russian leader has made few international trips after the International Criminal Court (ICC) issued an arrest warrant for him in March, accusing him of deporting Ukrainian children.

Neither the UAE nor Saudi Arabia have signed the ICC’s founding treaty, and are not obligated to arrest him if he enters their territories. (Full article.)

US Officials Accuse Biden Admin Of Downplaying Attacks From Iran-Backed Houthis

Some US officials are criticizing the Biden administration for deliberately downplaying the threat from Yemen's Houthis on US naval forces, Politico reported Tuesday. The criticism follows an attack on Sunday on several commercial vessels in the Red Sea, which forced a US Navy warship to scramble to respond.

The Yemeni resistance movement launched missiles and drones against three separate commercial vessels. The USS Carney fired back, taking down three unmanned aerial drones. It is unclear whether the US Navy ship was also a target of the attack or was simply coming to the aid of the commercial vessels.

Defense Department and Biden administration officials, including national security adviser Jake Sullivan, have said the US "cannot assess" whether the USS Carney was the target of the attacks.

After previous Houthi drone and missile attacks on commercial shipping vessels, the Pentagon said officials did not believe the group was targeting the warships.

But four other officials with knowledge of the discussions said in interviews with Politico that Biden administration officials are playing down the threat to avoid an escalation amid Israel's war with Hamas in Gaza.

The Houthis have made clear it is targeting commercial ships with ties to Israel, and has launched missiles toward the Israeli port city of Eilat in support of the Palestinians. (Full article.)

As far as our “Beast” financial system, I am honestly very surprised it has not collapsed yet, as U.S. Banks are bleeding capital at a rate even worse than earlier this year when several banks, mostly tied to Silicon Valley, collapsed.

The stock market continues to chug along even as the price of oil keeps falling, and the value of Gold is increasing. This is because, as I have said repeatedly in the past, the U.S. Stock Market has become a Casino without much difference than the large Casinos in Vegas, betting money that does not even really exist, in the largest Ponzi scheme the world has probably ever seen.

'Is this a stock market, or a casino?' New 4X leverage S&P 500 ETN met with caution

An exchange-traded product that allows investors to place massively leveraged bets on the S&P 500 launched on Tuesday, according to a news release from the sponsor, Bank of Montreal.

It is called the MAX S&P 500 4X Leveraged Exchange Traded Note XXXX, and it will offer investors daily returns four times that of the S&P 500 Total Return Index. The fund's sponsor, Max ETNs, already offers four other leveraged ETNs offering 3X exposure to the airline and auto industries.

The ETN started trading Tuesday on NYSE Arca using the ticker "XXXX."

Sponsors of the product heralded it as an "innovative tool" for investors.

"With the launch of these 4X leveraged ETNs, we continue to foster a diversified and dynamic investment landscape," said Adam Stempel, managing director of BMO Capital Markets, in a news release. “As investors seek strategies to navigate evolving market conditions, we provide access to innovative tools designed to meet their various needs.”

Others were quick to express surprise that a product like this would be allowed after two 4X leveraged products proposed by ForceShares were ultimately blocked by the Securities and Exchange Commission back in 2017.

Although the SEC initially approved a rule change that would allow 4X leveraged ETFs, the agency eventually decided to reconsider, according to a report from Barron’s.

One thing to keep in mind: XXXX isn’t an ETF, it is an ETN, which technically makes it more similar to a debt instrument than a stock. Todd Sohn, ETF analyst at Strategas Securities, told ETF.com that this could have allowed XXXX to circumvent the SEC’s rules regarding leveraged ETFs. Representatives for the SEC and BMO didn’t immediately respond to requests for comment from MarketWatch.

In the ETN’s prospectus, BMO emphasized that the product is designed for short-term trading by sophisticated investors.

“The notes are riskier than securities that have intermediate- or long-term investment objectives, and aren’t be suitable for investors who plan to hold them for a period other than one day or who have a ‘buy and hold’ strategy,” the prospectus said.

“Investors should actively and continuously monitor their investments in the notes, even intraday. It is possible that you will suffer significant losses in the notes even if the long-term performance of the Index is positive,” the prospectus said. “You should proceed with extreme caution in considering an investment in the notes.”

Back in 2017, Joe Saluzzi, a partner at institutional broker Themis Trading, spoke to Barron’s about the prospect of 4x leveraged ETFs.

“At some point, the SEC has to come in and say, ‘Enough is enough.’ This is a stock market, not a casino,” he said at the time.

During a phone interview with MarketWatch on Tuesday, Saluzzi said his comment from six years ago still applied.

“If you’re going to go to 3x, 4x, why not go to 10x? Why not go to 100x? What are we doing here? Are we investing, or are we gambling? Is this a stock market, or a casino?” Saluzzi said.

After decades on Wall Street, Saluzzi is wary of products that appear to subvert the intended purpose of the stock market as a vehicle for companies to raise capital and instead make it look like a casino designed to separate unsophisticated investors from their hard-earned money. As I wrote in my last article, this criminal financial system is probably the main “Beast” discussed in Revelation, with the second “Beast” that gives it a voice being “Big Tech” today.

And one of the events that could bring down this entire criminal enterprise is a “Cyber Attack”, something that is starting to be discussed again in the Alternative Media.

The WEF “Cyber Attack” Scenario: Another Crisis “Much Worse Than COVID”, Paralysis of Power Supply, Communications, Transportation

by Michel Chossudovsky

The World Economic Forum (WEF) which represents the Western financial elites, played a key role in the launching of the March 11, 2020 corona lockdown, which was conducive to a worldwide process of economic and social chaos. It also played a key role in the launching of the Covid-19 vaccine in November 2020.

And now they are “promising” us a crisis which is “much worse than Covid”.

Over the last three years the deliberate triggering of chaos has become part of a broad and complex agenda: the war in Ukraine, the hike in energy prices, the triggering of bankruptcies, the collapse of economic activity, widespread poverty, famine and despair.

In recent developments, Washington has endorsed Israel's genocide directed against the People of Palestine, coupled with an unfolding US-NATO-Israel military agenda against the broader Middle East.

Cyber-Attacks

The article below focusses on the imminent dangers of cyber warfare, which have already been announced by the World Economic Forum (WEF).

In 2021, the WEF conducted a simulation of cyber attacks involving a scenario of Paralysis of the Power Supply, Communications, Transportation, The Internet.

Klaus Schwab intimated in no uncertain terms based on "a simulated scenario" that a cyber-attack:

"Could bring a complete halt to the power supply, transportation, hospital services, our society as a whole ...

The COVID-19 crisis would be seen in this respect as a small disturbance in comparison to a major cyberattack." (emphasis added)

What does Schwab have up his sleeve?

A "Cyber Terrorist Attack" conducive to unprecedented disruptions? Is this something that we should take seriously?

Time to leave the Christian Church

Source.

In my last article I showed how based on current events, the only country that makes sense as “The Great Harlot” or “Babylon” as the leader over all other geopolitical nations in the world today as described in Revelation in the Bible, is the United States of America, the “revived Roman Empire.”

But historically, many Bible commentators writing about Revelation, especially in the late 1800s during the “Reformation” period in Europe, equated “Babylon” and the “Harlot” in Revelation to a religious force, namely “Christianity”, Roman Christianity and the “Roman Catholic Church” led by “The Pope.”

However, looking at the vast geopolitical and religious landscape as it exists here today at the end of 2023, Italy and the Pope really are not all that significant in world events today, as they were during the Reformation period.

Instead, the most powerful Christian Country in the world today is undoubtedly the United States, and the most powerful religious force in Christianity is American Christianity, especially Zionism.

Therefore, it makes much more sense today to see “Babylon” and “The Harlot” as being the American Corporate Church.

But I just identified “Babylon” and “The Harlot” in Revelation as probably referring to the United States in my last article. Am I now changing my opinion about this?

No, because the U.S. Government and the Christian Religion in the U.S. today are inseparable, as one cannot exist without the other. They are two halves of the same demonic identity, “Babylon” and “The Harlot”.

I know that many Christians who read our articles will protest to me calling the United States a “Christian Country”, as they use such terms as “true Christians” or “real Christians” to try and separate themselves from all the various Christian sects and denominations that exist in the U.S. today.

But the English word “Christian” is used and applied to all religions that claim to be founded by Jesus Christ and written about in the Bible. This includes Catholics, Protestants, Mormons, and Evangelicals, along with many others.

The United States is a Christian country. It is not a Muslim, Jewish, Buddhist, or Hindu country, even though all of these religious groups are also found in the U.S.

All of the presidents “elected” in the U.S. have identified as Christians, although for a couple of them their religious affiliation is unknown, probably because they knew the public would never support a non-Christian president.

Without the help and participation of American Christians, the U.S. financial system would quickly crash.

The two biggest drivers of the U.S. financial system are the military, and the medical system.

It is well-known that a majority of the U.S. military force are from the South, and the “Bible Belt,” especially Texas. Most of the Christian Churches these military members come from will proudly display the American flag on their pulpits, right next to other images like the cross.

American Christianity fully supports the U.S. Military Industrial Complex, and the U.S. military would quickly fall apart if American Christians all of a sudden started teaching that war is wrong, and that serving the Satanic American government is morally wrong.

Likewise, American Christianity fully supports the demonic medical system, and you will find many medical doctors and other medical professionals in pretty much every Christian Church in the U.S. today, where their professions are held in high regard.

Typically, the most powerful and influential members of most American Churches today are not the Pastor or Priest, but doctors and lawyers who usually serve as “elders” and “deacons” and control the finances of the their church.

The Great COVID Scam never would have been able to lock down the country and mandate COVID shots if American Christians had taken a stand and told the government that they were not going to comply.

But we all know that never happened, and never will happen, because the people running the government in the U.S. are all mostly Christians sitting in pews of those same churches every Sunday, where the medical system is held in high regard.

And yet, if these American Christians would follow the teachings of Jesus and the Bible, they would utterly reject modern medicine, which is rooted in Satanism, and develop their own “healthcare” system that relied on healing from God, rather than Satan. See:

The Satanic Roots to Modern Medicine – The Mark of the Beast?

This worship of the Satanic medical system and their medicines, is one reason why Babylon/The Harlot is going to be judged, according to Revelation:

The light of a lamp will shine in you no more, and the voice of bridegroom and bride will be heard in you no more, for your merchants were the great ones of the earth, and all nations were deceived by your sorcery. And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on earth. (Revelation 18:23-24)

The English word “sorcery” in this verse is pharmakeia in Greek, the original language Revelation was written in, from which we get words like pharmacy, pharmaceutical products, etc., and would be more accurately translated into English as “medicines” or “pharmaceutical products.”

I have also previously reported that it is the American

Church that supports Child Trafficking in the U.S., receiving government funding to kidnap other parents' children through the government-funded Foster Care and Adoption programs.

If American Churches decided to stop collecting money from the U.S. Government to foster and adopt other people's children, and only took care of children who were really orphans with no parents, and without the help of Government funding, but taking care of them instead through their own nonprofit corporate church, the entire Satanic Foster Care and Adoption Government programs would utterly collapse.

But instead, American Christianity has participated in the same sins, and has made a fortune off the Beast financial system in the process.

I have already published this in previous articles, but it bears repeating here again to drive home this truth:

Corporate Christianity is a $TRILLION market, employing millions of people, and to dare to oppose Zionism and not support Israel is to potentially lose your career and source of income, and be ridiculed by the Christian Community.

A study conducted in 2016 estimated that religion in America, which is primarily Zionist Christianity, was “worth $1.2 trillion, more than the combined revenue of the top 10 technology companies in the country, including Apple, Amazon, and Google.” (Source.)

“MinistryWatch” listed the “100 largest Christian ministries in the U.S.” in 2020. (Source.)

Just these 100 businesses alone total over $23 billion: $23,844,696,705.

Three of these top 5 Christian businesses are universities where Zionism is taught, with each school taking in over $1 billion in revenue each year. When you consider all the Zionist Christian publishing companies producing news, films, TV, books and educational materials, as well as Christian “Pastors” who graduated from these Zionist schools preaching Zionism from the pulpit every week, it is easy to see how the Zionist propaganda infiltrates and saturates American culture and Conservative Right-wing politics.

The leaders at the top of this industry are clearly Freemasons, and if they are successful in destroying the current Al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem, and replacing it with a Masonic “Jewish” Temple, you can be sure all the Zionist Christians will shout for joy in their service to Satan.

Check out how much the richest pastors in the world make from Christianity:

Top 20 Richest Pastors in the World

So, since American Christianity has not taken a stand against Lady Liberty, the head demon over the U.S., by refusing to cooperate with the U.S. Government in their “harlotries” which would have already collapsed the U.S. economy, they will be the recipients of the same judgments brought upon the United States and Lady Liberty, where the Beast financial system will be destroyed.

Here is what Revelation chapter 18 says:

After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor.

With a mighty voice he shouted: “Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great! She has become a home for demons and a haunt for every evil spirit, a haunt for every unclean and detestable bird. For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries. The kings of the earth committed adultery with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from her excessive luxuries.”

Then I heard another voice from heaven say: “Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues; for her sins are piled up to heaven, and God has remembered her crimes. Give back to her as she has given; pay her back double for what she has done. Mix her a double portion from her own cup. Give her as much torture and grief as the glory and luxury she gave herself. In her heart she boasts, “I sit as queen; I am not a widow, and I will never mourn.’

Therefore in one day her plagues will overtake her: death, mourning and famine. She will be consumed by fire, for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.

When the kings of the earth who committed adultery with her and shared her luxury see the smoke of her burning, they will weep and mourn over her. Terrified at her torment, they will stand far off and cry: “Woe! Woe, O great city, O Babylon, city of power! In one hour your doom has come!’ The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her because no one buys their cargoes any more.”

They will say, ‘The fruit you longed for is gone from you. All your riches and splendor have vanished, never to be recovered.'

The merchants who sold these things and gained their wealth from her will stand far off, terrified at her torment. They will weep and mourn and cry out: "Woe! Woe, O great city, dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet, and glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls! In one hour such great wealth has been brought to ruin!"

When they see the smoke of her burning, they will exclaim, 'Was there ever a city like this great city?' They will throw dust on their heads, and with weeping and mourning cry out: "Woe! Woe, O great city, where all who had ships on the sea became rich through her wealth! In one hour she has been brought to ruin! Rejoice over her, O heaven! Rejoice, saints and apostles and prophets! God has judged her for the way she treated you.'

Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said: "With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again. The music of harpists and musicians, flute players and trumpeters, will never be heard in you again. No workman of any trade will ever be found in you again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again. The light of a lamp will never shine in you again. The voice of bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again.

Your merchants were the world's great men. By your magic spell (pharmaceutical products) all the nations were led astray. In her was found the blood of prophets and of the saints, and of all who have been killed on the earth."

So who are “God’s people” who are being directed here to “come out” of Babylon, the U.S. Government and American Christianity?

They are not “the Jews” that the Zionist Cult wants us to believe, nor any other ethnic group or race of people.

They are the remnant believers, the spiritual “seed” of Abraham who have been spiritually reborn into the only physical descendant of Abraham that truly matters, Jesus Christ. See:

Who are the Children of Abraham?

In Revelation Chapter 12, the remnant believers are referred to as a “woman,” a woman who opposes the Great Harlot. They are the Old Testament believers who received the promise of Abraham through Christ, and they are also the New Testament believers, sometimes referred to as the “Bride of Christ.”

These believers are the true spiritual “seed” of Abraham, and the Godly spiritual seed that came from Eve in Genesis 3. The word for this spiritual “seed” in the original Greek language of the New Testament is “sperma“, which can represent a literal seed from a plant, or a human physical seed represented by the male “sperm.”

This word also appears in Revelation chapter 12:

A great and wondrous sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head.

She was pregnant and cried out in pain as she was about to give birth.

Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth.

The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born.

She gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron scepter. And her child was snatched up to God and to his throne.

The woman fled into the desert to a place prepared for her by God, where she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.

And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven.

The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down. They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.

Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you! He is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short.”

When the dragon saw that he had been hurled to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the desert, where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time, out of the serpent’s reach.

Then from his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river, to overtake the woman and sweep her away with the torrent. But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.

Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God’s commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. (Revelation 12)

I highlighted the word “woman” which represents the true believers, those of the spiritual seed of Abraham. The word highlighted in red, “offspring” is “sperma” in the Greek.

The male child is Jesus Christ, who Satan tried to destroy at his birth, with the slaughter of children in Bethlehem as recorded in the Gospels.

Most commentators of the past have identified the “woman” in this passage as “the Church”, mainly the Reformed Church that was rescued from the Pope and the Catholic church during the years of the Reformation.

The modern-day commentaries that follow dispensationalism with the Zionist view will claim that this woman is Israel.

But I believe they are both wrong. The use of the Greek term “sperma” in the last verse of this chapter is better interpreted, in my opinion, as the spiritually born believers in Jesus Christ, in fulfillment to the promises given to Abraham in Genesis.

If I am correct, then disaster and judgment are imminent against the United States of America and the American Church, the “Great Harlot” and “Babylon” which are about to fall.

So then the voice from Heaven in Revelation 18 which says: “Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues; for her sins are piled up to heaven, and God has remembered her crimes”, is not a warning to get out of the United States, it is a warning to get out of American Christianity, and stop participating in her sins to avoid the “plagues” that are coming.

Many of those who did not get out of the American Churches during COVID and obeyed their Church leaders and took the COVID bioweapon shots have already received the first round of “plagues.”

You have been warned.

NASA's fake moon landing hoax from 1969 is getting more attention in the alternative media these days, as a clip from Russian Dmitry Rogozin, the former head of Roscosmos, the Russian state space agency, is going viral which has reportedly exposed the fake NASA 1969 moon landing.

Greg Reese has put together an excellent report about the fake moon landing this week:

Is this perhaps military posturing over the rapidly increasing

I have previously reported how NASA is a Freemason agency, and that the name of NASA's new military program is "Artemis," the name given to the main female "deity" during the days of the Roman Empire centered in the city of Ephesus. This female demonic "god" was known as "Ashtoreth" in Old Testament times, and today I believe she is known as "Columbia" or "Lady Freedom" and resides in the United States. See:

Get to Know NASA's New Artemis Freemason Space Program

This female head demon "deity" was also linked to worship of the moon, and was sometimes called "The Queen of Heaven", such as in the book of the prophet Jeremiah, who was the sole prophet who warned the inhabitants of Jerusalem that the city and the Temple were about to be destroyed in 586 BC by the military forces of Babylon.

As you can see from the prophecies of Jeremiah, this “Queen of Heaven” was known as a fertility god.

The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes of bread for the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger. (Jeremiah 7:18)

After Jerusalem was destroyed and Jeremiah was carried away along with some of the other Jews who survived to Egypt, Jeremiah wrote again about the “Queen of Heaven” who was also worshiped in Egypt:

This word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Lower Egypt—in Migdol, Tahpanhes and Memphis—and in Upper Egypt:

“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You saw the great disaster I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Today they lie deserted and in ruins because of the evil they have done. They provoked me to anger by burning incense and by worshiping other gods that neither they nor you nor your fathers ever knew. Again and again I sent my servants the prophets, who said, ‘Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!’

But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods. Therefore, my fierce anger was poured out; it raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins they are today.

Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster on you and to destroy all Judah. I will take away the remnant of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt; they will fall by the sword or die from famine.

From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine. They will become an object of cursing and horror, of condemnation and reproach. I will punish those who live in Egypt with the sword, famine and plague, as I punished Jerusalem. None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live; none will return except a few fugitives.

Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present—a large assembly—and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt, said to Jeremiah, “We will not listen to the message you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD! We will certainly do everything we said we would: We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our fathers, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem.

At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm. But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine.”

The women added, “When we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did not our husbands know that we were making (moon) cakes like her image and pouring out drink offerings to her?"

(Jeremiah 44)

The image of the "Queen of Heaven" is believed to have been an image of the moon, and so the "cakes" they made would have been "moon cakes".

The similarities to Jerusalem which was so evil it was destroyed in 586 BC, to the modern day United States, are so striking that I did an entire article back in 2021 on how the sins of the U.S. are just as evil, if not more, than Jerusalem back in the 580s BC. See:

What Happens When a Holy and Righteous God Gets Angry? Lessons from History and the Prophet Jeremiah

Notice how the remnant of survivors who left Jerusalem after it was destroyed in 586 BC and escaped to Egypt, did NOT attribute the destruction of Jerusalem to their sins and idolatry, but to their discontinuation of serving "The Queen of Heaven", represented by the moon.

Today, people in the United States are not "burning incense" and worshipping the moon, as far as I know, but we are "worshipping" her in different ways, by spending $billions on the NASA space program and the new military Space Agency, much of which today is flowing through the hands of Elon Musk and his SpaceX program, to go "back" to the moon "again," even though we never went there in the first place back in 1969.

I have been studying the Book of Revelation in the Bible for the past few weeks and have published some articles on my studies based on current events.

Is the Spirit of Columbia the Head Demon Over the United States? Is this Demon Referenced in Biblical Prophecy?

Is Lady Liberty (Columbia) the “Great Prostitute” of Prophecy Residing in Washington D.C., the Revived Roman Empire to Fall During the “Last Days”?

The Imminent Demise of Christianity in America: “Come out of her my people lest you share her plagues...”

In Revelation 19 we see a description of what many believe was a vision of the last battle, which originates in “heaven” (Space):

I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and makes war. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself.

He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God. The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean.

Out of his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. “He will rule them with an iron scepter.”

He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, "Come, gather together for the great supper of God, so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great."

Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. But the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who had performed the miraculous signs on his behalf. With these signs he had deluded those who had received the mark of the beast and worshiped his image.

The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur. The rest of them were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh. (Revelation 19:11-21)

Are we approaching this "last battle" that originates in "heaven" where the Queen of Heaven, represented by "Columbia" and the NASA "space" program which "worships" the moon, engages in battle, together with the "Serpent", against Jesus Christ and his army?

As I have written in my previous articles, these are all my opinions based on my 40+ years of studying the Bible and trying to interpret Biblical prophecy about the "last days" through the lens of current events, and I am not dogmatic about these opinions, since these events still lie in the future, and we will not know for certain until they actually happen.

There are literally many hundreds of different interpretations for the “Last Days,” and for anyone to be dogmatic and claim that only their view is the correct one, is very foolish, in my opinion.

I have previously written that of the 7 “bowl” judgments mentioned in Revelation chapter 16, the first one may have already been poured out upon the earth, representing the COVID-19 “vaccines” and those that chose to receive them, since the first bowl is described like this:

Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go, pour out the seven bowls of God’s wrath on the earth.” The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land, and ugly and painful sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshiped his image.”
(Revelation 16:1-2)

Read more here.

If that interpretation is correct, then what is the second bowl judgement that might be imminent?

The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a dead man, and every living thing in the sea died. (Revelation 16:3)

The name of this “sea” in this passage is not mentioned, but could it be the Mediterranean Sea that borders Israel/Gaza where the U.S. Navy currently has multiple aircraft carriers and other ships in the area?

Could the “blood” in this prophecy be referring to the blood of soldiers from the land of “Columbia” involved in a naval battle, perhaps even a nuclear submarine that is destroyed and then contaminates the sea life in the area?

It is certainly one interpretation that fits into current events, but only time will tell how this all actually unfolds.

The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from heaven.

He replied, “When evening comes, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,’ and in the morning, ‘Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.’

You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times. (Matthew 16:1-3)

What is the Difference Between the "Image of the Beast" and the "Mark of the Beast"?

Left top images are the two sides of the Roman “denarius” coin used in the First Century, featuring the Roman emperor as the “high priest.” The top right images are the two sides of an American Silver dollar that have been coined through the years featuring “Lady Liberty”, the head demon over the United States.

“If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on the forehead or on the hand, he, too, will drink of the wine of God’s fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. He will be tormented with burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name.” (Revelation 14:9-11)

by Brian Shilhavy

This is another article in my series about the book of Revelation in the Bible and “End Times” prophecies, with possible interpretations presented in light of modern events currently happening in the world around us since the COVID Scam in 2020.

Here are the previous articles:

Is the Spirit of Columbia the Head Demon Over the United States? Is this Demon Referenced in Biblical Prophecy?

Is Lady Liberty \(Columbia\) the “Great Prostitute” of Prophecy Residing in Washington D.C., the Revived Roman Empire to Fall During the “Last Days”?

Are the Space Wars About to Begin? Is the Second “Bowl” Judgment About to be Poured Out?

I am writing from the premise that modern-day events point to the United States and American Christianity as “The Great Prostitute” and “Babylon,” with the first “Beast” mentioned in Revelation being the financial system, and NOT the Anti-Christ, which others besides myself also interpret as the “Beast,” and that the second “Beast” that gives voice to and works together with the first Beast, is Big Tech.

In this article, I want to identify what modern-day evidence leads to as identifying the “mark of the beast,” which is different from the “image of the beast.”

In Revelation chapter 14, for example, we see these three identities all mentioned in the same verse:

“If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on the forehead or on the hand, he, too, will drink of the wine of God’s fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. He will be tormented with burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name.” (Revelation 14:9-11)

So what is the difference between the beast’s “image” and his “mark”?

The Image of the Beast

A denarius featuring Tiberius. The inscription on the obverse reads Ti[berivs] Caesar Divi Avg[vsti] F[ilivs] Avgvstvs (“Caesar Augustus Tiberius, son of the Divine Augustus”), and the reverse reads Pontif[ex] Maxim[us] (“Highest Priest”). Source.

The Greek word in the original texts that is translated into English as “image” here is eikon. We get the English word “icon” from this Greek word, which is used in computer technology in modern times, such as a small image representing something, and has even expanded to “Emoticons”.

“Image” is a good English translation of this Greek word. Jesus used this word in the following story:

Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words. They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians.

“Teacher,” they said, “we know you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren't swayed by men, because you pay no attention to who they are. Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, "You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me? Show me the coin used for paying the tax."

They brought him a denarius, and he asked them, "Whose image is this? And whose inscription?"

"Caesar's," they replied.

Then he said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's." When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away. (Matthew 22:15-22)

At this time, "Caesar" was used as the name for whoever was head of the Roman Empire during that time, and during the days of Christ, it was reportedly Tiberius. So his image would have been on the "denarius" coin brought to Jesus in this story (see image above).

What Jesus was basically saying here is that it was fine to give back to "Caesar" his money minted in his "image", but that believers who followed him as the Messiah were NOT to worship Caesar as the "highest priest", which was the inscription on the coin, because Jesus took over as the High Priest on earth bringing man back to God:

For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. (Hebrews 2:17)

Therefore, holy brothers, who share in the heavenly calling, fix your thoughts on Jesus, the apostle and high priest whom we confess. (Hebrews 3:1)

Since the evidence is overwhelming that the United States was founded as a Freemason Republic, and is the “Revived Roman Empire,” we see the same kinds of “images” on U.S. Government currencies, including the demonic “Lady Liberty“, as well as national “icons”, such as the first President of the United States, Freemason George Washington.

U.S. 1 Dollar Gold Coin.

And like the ancient Roman Empire, we too, here in the United States, also have many other “images” of national “icons” represented in statues of famous people. Creating these statues is obviously one function of masonry, and one of the world’s most famous pieces of masonry representing Lady Liberty’s servants (U.S. Presidents) is sculptured into Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota.

A South Dakota State Representative made news earlier this year when he called Mt. Rushmore a “Freemason shrine” and a “demonic portal”. This was published in the NY Post:

A South Dakota state representative bizarrely claimed that the state's Mount Rushmore is a "Freemason shrine," and a demonic portal for communism.

Joe Donnell, who represents South Dakota's District One in the state legislature, said during an appearance on the Now Is The Time podcast that his oddball revelation about the iconic national monument came from "The Lord."

"If you go back and do some history on Mount Rushmore, it actually is a Freemason shrine," Donnell says in a viral video clip of the podcast posted by Right Wing Watch.

"What the Lord has revealed to me is that Mount Rushmore has a direct ley line to Washington, DC."

Donnell then went on to explain the nefarious significance of a "ley line" — which is described as a path of spiritual energy that passes from one place to another.

"In order to understand the spiritual realm of what we're facing, we have to realize that in order for the enemy to do anything, it needs the agreement of human beings. In order to be empowered to do more damage he needs the agreement of human beings and oftentimes that comes in the form of an altar that acts as a portal for demonic things," he continues.

"What we're really dealing with in that portal is communism. That witchcraft, altar, those things that are happening in the Black Hills, what we're dealing with is communism. It's the ideology and all the demonic entities and spirits behind that," he says.

Donnell is a member of the Sisseton Wahpeton Oyate tribe, according to KELO. The land on which Mount Rushmore was built is considered sacred by local Native Americans.

Mount Rushmore, which was completed in 1941, features the immense faces of former Presidents George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and Teddy Roosevelt carved into the granite mountainside

Washington and Roosevelt were Freemasons, an international fraternal organization dating back hundreds of years, according to the Museum of Freemasonry. (Full article.)

South Dakota Governor Kristi Noem apparently agrees with all this, as she signed an executive proclamation on June 3, 2023 as “Open the Heavens Day.”

It's a shame that these politicians are apparently politicizing this issue by stating that Mt. Rushmore is only "a demonic portal for communism." I am fairly sure it is probably at least as big or a bigger "portal" (if they're correct) for demonic Zionism and American Christianity as well.

Throughout the New Testament portion of the Bible there are warnings about worshiping the image of the “beast” represented in the financial system.

Paul wrote that the love of money is the root of evil:

But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it.

But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that.

People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction.

For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. (1 Timothy 6:6-10)

Jesus took it even further, and stated that one could not serve both “money” (the beast) and God.

“No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.” (Luke 16:13)

Paul also wrote that in the “last days” people would love evil, including money, and that the true believers should “have nothing to do with them.”

But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—having a form of godliness but denying its power.

Have nothing to do with them. (2 Timothy 3:1-5)

Using the beast financial system is not prohibited, however, as we can see from Jesus' answer given in the Matthew 22 story I quoted above, where Jesus made it clear it was not wrong to give Caesar's image-bearing beast money back to him, as long as one did not worship him as the "high priest."

Jesus also taught about using money in some of his parables, where using the beast image on currency was not prohibited, including using evil banks to earn interest.

When describing what the "Kingdom of Heaven" will be like, Jesus told this parable:

Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey.

The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more. So also, the one with the two talents gained two more.

But the man who had received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents brought the other five.

'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.'

His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

The man with the two talents also came.

'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with two talents; see, I have gained two more.'

His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

Then the man who had received the one talent came.

'Master,' he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.'

His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents. For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ (Matthew 25:14-30)

The world’s wealth, the beast financial system, is not something those who serve God are supposed to pursue or worship.

But when God gives us wealth, even when bearing the image of the beast, we are to use it to build up the Kingdom of God, fighting against the beast financial system of the world.

Having to manage the wealth God was giving me through my businesses during my lifetime, I thoroughly researched this topic many years ago, and wrote an article explaining the biblical principles of managing wealth.

The Creation of Wealth

I have followed these principles for over 2 decades now, managing worldly wealth for the sake of the Kingdom of God, where worldly wealth serves me and my calling to manage these resources that actually belong to God, rather than me serving the beast financial system and its images.

“In God We Trust”?

Grand Army of the Republic Memorial (Siloam Springs, Arkansas) engraved with the words “in god we trust”.
Source.

Today, U.S. currency bearing the image of the beast also includes this phrase: “In God We Trust.”

The question that begs to be answered, of course, is how is the English word “God” interpreted here? Who is this “god”?

While the earliest mentions of the phrase can be found in the mid-19th century, the origins of this phrase as a political motto lie in the American Civil War, where Union supporters wanted to emphasize their attachment to God and to boost morale.

The capitalized form “IN GOD WE TRUST” first appeared on the two-cent piece in 1864 and initially only appeared on coins, but it gradually became accepted among Americans.

Much wider adoption followed in the 1950s. The first postage stamps with the motto appeared in 1954.

A law passed in July 1955 by a joint resolution of the 84th Congress (Pub. L. Toole Public Law (United States) 84-140) and approved by President Dwight Eisenhower requires that “In God We Trust” appear on all American currency. (Source.)

As to the origins of this phrase:

The precise phrase, “In God We Trust” is also found in a publication of Isaac Watts’ Psalter which was revised and printed in America in 1785.

Watts had translated Psalm 115:9-11 with the words, “Britain, trust the Lord.”

An American publisher, Joel Barlow, sought to revise Watts’ Psalter for an American audience. Barlow’s goal was to modify Watts in such a way as to purge the un-American flavor.

Barlow simply translated Psalm 115: 9–11 with the words “In God we Trust.” (Source.)

Here is Psalm 115:9–11:

O house of Israel, trust in the LORD— he is their help and shield. O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD— he is their help and shield. You who fear him, trust in the LORD— he is their help and shield. (Psalms 115:9–11)

This “god” is clearly the “god” defined by the Satanic Jews who have always controlled the world’s financial system, mainly through Freemasonry. This “god” is clearly the “god” of Freemasonry, which is Satan himself. The fact that this phrase appears on currency with the image of the Beast, as well as in other places associated with Freemasonry (see the Memorial in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, above for example), clearly point to the English word “god” here representing Satan, who controls the world’s Beast financial system.

For many walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even as I weep, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ, whose end is destruction, whose god is their appetite, and whose glory is in their shame, who have their minds on earthly things. (Philippians 3:18–19)

In this Beast financial system, the one name you will never see anywhere on any currency is “Jesus Christ.”

The “Mark” of the Beast

Having defined the “image” of the Beast, now we turn to the “mark” of the Beast, which Revelation says will be required to participate in Satan’s financial system.

Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon. He exercised all the authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed.

And he performed great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of men.

Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived.

He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that it could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed.

He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name. This calls for wisdom. If anyone has insight, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is man's number. His number is 666. (Revelation 13:11-18)

I have dealt with many of the symbols in this passage in my previous article, where, based on modern events, I interpret the first beast as the financial system, the second beast as Big Tech. See:

Is Lady Liberty (Columbia) the “Great Prostitute” of Prophecy Residing in Washington D.C., the Revived Roman Empire to Fall During the “Last Days”?

Now we come to the “mark”, a topic hotly debated about with commentators through the ages when referring to the book of Revelation.

The Greek word used here in the original texts that is translated into “mark” in this passage, is charagma, which could mean a stamp, or an imprinted mark, such as in the branding of cattle, or as a carved stone image, such as a statue.

This word is used 8 times in the New Testament, with 7 of those occurrences in the book of Revelation.

The only other place it is used is in Acts 17:29, where it is most often translated into English as “image.”

Therefore since we are God’s offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone—an image made by man’s design and skill. In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent.

For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising him from the dead. (Acts 17:29-31)

Other translations avoid the English word “image” which is most often used for the Greek word eikon, which is where we get the English word “icon” from, as I noted above. Here is one example that does NOT use the English word “image”:

Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. (Acts 17:29 – WEB – KJV is also similar.)

In the passage of Revelation chapter 13, this mark is said to be “received” from the “beast”, on the “right hand or on his forehead”, in order to “buy or sell”.

I have previously written on this verse of the “mark” referred to here, showing that this does not have to be a literal physical “mark”, as there are also spiritual “marks,” and the most important one is the “mark” (or “seal”) of the Holy Spirit that one receives when they go through the spiritual rebirth, which proves God’s ownership over this person:

And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God’s possession—to the praise of his glory. (Ephesians 1:13-14)

The “mark” on the right hand or forehead, for example, was first used by Moses in the Book of Exodus, the second book of the Bible. Moses is instructing the people on how to observe the Passover:

On that day tell your son, ‘I do this because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’

This observance will be for you like a sign on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the law of the LORD is to be on your lips. For the LORD brought you out of Egypt with his mighty hand. (Exodus 13:8-9)

The “signs” here were very likely not literal, as there is no record of the entire nation of Israel getting some kind of physical sign on their forehead and right hand, like a tattoo or something. The only physical mark recorded that the nation used in their covenant with God was circumcision of males.

The more accepted translation is that “forehead” represents the mind and what we think, and the “right hand” represents actions and work, carrying out by faith what we believe in our minds.

For a more detailed explanation, see:

The Seal and Mark of God is Far More Important than the “Mark of the Beast” – Are You Prepared for What’s Coming?

I still believe this “mark” in Revelation is not a literal mark stamped on the body somewhere, but with modern technology now, we have the means to mark various parts of the body through biometrics, and the most common biometric marks are face scans, including scans of your eyes (located on your “forehead”), as well as palm scans.

Here is a quote from the website BiometricUpdate.com just a few days ago:

Face biometrics play a key role in the future of digital identity and online transactions, as seen in several of the most-read stories of the week on Biometric Update. Among them; age verification continues to trend, NIST has released a new FATE report and Onfido’s CEO argues for re-usable ID.

Meanwhile, leading face biometrics developer ROC.ai has moved into a new modality. Major decisions in digital identity also were also made this week in legislation and in court. (Full article.)

Amazon.com, the world’s largest online retailer and owner of the Whole Foods chain of grocery stores, is moving towards cashless transactions as they have developed a palm scanning system that bypasses using any physical currency. See:

Amazon's Whole Foods Moves Closer to the Satanic Merchant Model of Marking and Tracking Every Customer

Using biometric IDs to participate in the financial system is fast becoming a reality, and it is the beast technology that allows this to happen.

By collecting a “mark” from your body that is unique to you and you alone, such as palm scans, face scans, and iris scans, the need for “images” representing the “beast” financial system on physical currency such as coins and paper, is no longer needed, as your “mark” now shows Satan’s ownership over you, that allows you to “buy and sell” in the new beast financial system of digital transactions.

All of this is currently “voluntary”, and as many people sign up to have their body parts scanned into the system, it allows the Globalists to perfect this digital biometric system until “the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived” happens as prophesied in Revelation, which seems to be the total collapse of the financial system, which will be blamed on the current World War 3 that is beginning to unfold.

The Globalists will then use this event, such as a “cyber attack”, as an excuse to crash the entire financial system and replace it with the new one based on biometrics and digital currency, which the World Economic Forum has been referring to as “The Great Reset” for the past few years.

I have been warning the readers of the Health Impact News network about this for the past few years now.

Are you ready?

Have you counted the cost of following Christ and refusing to participate in the Beast financial system through sacrificing your privacy and identity for a biometric “mark”, and all that entails?

Are you prepared to see everything in your bank account disappear overnight?

*In one hour such great wealth has been brought to ruin!
(Revelation 18:17)*

Are you prepared to lose your job, to be prohibited from buying anything in your local grocery stores, because you refused this “mark”?

Are you prepared to die, rather than participate in this digital financial system that is quickly being rolled out right now in front of our own eyes?

*All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb that was slain from the creation of the world.
(Revelation 13:8)*

I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus and because of the word of God.

They had not worshiped the best or his image and had not received his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years. (Revelation 20:4)

Medical Doctors and Their Idolaters Will NOT be Welcome in the Kingdom of God

by Brian Shilhavy

I have been studying the Book of Revelation in the Bible for the past few weeks, which I have now completed, viewing end-time prophecies through the lens of modern-day events since the COVID Scam of 2020.

Here are the previous articles in this series:

What is the Difference Between the “Image of the Beast” and the “Mark of the Beast”?

As I have stated in previous articles, since much of the prophetic language of symbolism in Revelation concerns events in the future that have not yet happened, taking a dogmatic view of these prophecies and believing that only your view, out of the literally hundreds of views that have been written on this book over the centuries, is the correct one, is very foolish in my opinion.

Those who believe that only their view is the correct one, such as the “Zionists“, appear to directly contradict the words of Jesus himself, who stated, just before he ascended into heaven after his resurrection, that “It is not for you to know...”

So when they met together, they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?”

He said to them: “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority.” (Acts 1:6-7)

In his resurrected state, Jesus himself probably knew that the new “kingdom” was a spiritual one, not physical, not yet at least.

He may have already understood that before his death and resurrection, because this is what he said to Pilate, the Roman Government Official who condemned him to death at the request of the Satanic Jewish leaders:

Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

“Is that your own idea,” Jesus asked, “or did others talk to you about me?”

“Am I a Jew?” Pilate replied. “It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What is it you have done?”

Jesus said, “My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jews. But now my kingdom is from another place.” (John 18:33-36)

In Matthew chapter 24, Jesus acknowledged that the current heaven and earth would “pass away” in the future, but that not even he knew when that time would be (although he may know now in his post-resurrection state).

He stated it would come suddenly, when people were not expecting it.

“Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.

For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away.

That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.”
(Matthew 24:35-39)

So to all of you who have emailed me or tried to comment on these articles about Revelation and the “end times” telling me that I am wrong about this or that, you are claiming to know something that not even Jesus claimed to know while he walked on this earth, and then said to his disciples just before he went back to heaven, “It is not for you to know the times or dates...”

I have clearly stated that these articles on Revelation are my opinions, and that I am NOT dogmatic on them.

Almost all of the Christian commentaries on the book of Revelation that currently exist in the English language were written during the Reformation Period in Europe, or during the spread of Christianity in the United States, especially during the rise of Dispensationalism and Zionism since the 1970s.

Those commentaries, therefore, do not take into account recent events in the world, especially since the COVID Scam of 2020 through today.

This is what Jesus said about the “signs of the times”:

The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from heaven.

He replied, “When evening comes, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,’ and in the morning, ‘Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.’

*You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

A wicked and adulterous generation looks for a miraculous sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah.” Jesus then left them and went away. (Matthew 16:1-4)

Jesus wants us to interpret the signs of the times!

And Jesus sharply criticized the religious leaders of his day, who were not leading people to a relationship with God, but to be partakers in their own Satanic religion.

“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you are.” (Matthew 23:15)

The “signs of the times” lead one to believe that we are in the same kind of cultural situation today as existed in Jerusalem in Jesus’s day, where the entire city and temple were about to be destroyed.

American Christian leaders are today the equivalent of the “teachers of the law and Pharisees” (the Pharisees were the religious “conservatives” then, while the Sadducees were the religious “liberals” back then).

Jesus said you all belong in hell, along with your converts. (Sorry! He said it, not me.)

So when the current earth and heavens are destroyed by fire, and the new earth and heavens appear, along with the “heavenly Jerusalem”, who will be allowed to enter?

Jesus made it very clear that “many” who claim to be believers will not enter, and that those who do enter and find “The Way” will be few:

Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it.

But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves. By their fruit you will recognize them.

Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? Likewise every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit.

Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them.

Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?'

Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!' (Matthew 7:13-23)

So what are the characteristics of this “fruit” by the “false prophets” that Jesus said we will recognize?

This brings us now to the end of the book of Revelation, and the last three chapters that discuss the “Millennium” rule of Jesus Christ and the new heavens and earth that will appear.

The Millennium rule of Christ for 1000 years is hotly debated by Christians, with three main views taught over the centuries. I see problems with each view, as well as supporting text from Revelation for these various views.

But I am very comfortable with not endorsing any of these views, and just being honest that “I don’t know.” Because I don’t.

I have some opinions, but I don’t think the views of when and how the Millennium period will unfold are really all that important.

Just take the general truths that all these views agree upon, which is that Jesus Christ is coming back again, not as a helpless baby in a manger, but as a warrior to defeat Satan and setup his rule which will be (at least at some point) in the new earth and heavens.

That’s enough for me, and I think that is the main purpose of why the visions given to John were recorded in Revelation, which was to give believers hope for the future, where justice will ultimately be executed and Jesus will rule over his enemies.

Who Will be Welcome into the Kingdom of God?

What I want to do in the rest of this article now is look at who will NOT be allowed into this new kingdom according to Revelation 21, and how we can identify them by their “fruit”:

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea.

I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!”

Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

He said to me: “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsty I will give to drink without cost from the spring of the water of life.

He who overcomes will inherit all this, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur.

This is the second death.” (Revelation 21:1-8)

A study of the original Greek words that are translated into English in the words I made bold in this passage is a very interesting study.

The one word I want to point out which I have frequently written about for over two decades now, is the Greek word that is translated here as those who practice magic arts.

The Greek word used in the original texts here is pharmakos, from which we get English words such as “pharmacy”, “pharmacists”, etc. The proper English terms that have an equivalent meaning in modern times of this word group in the Greek, would be: “drugs”, “medicines”, and those who “practice” them, “doctors.”

But since the development of the English translations of the Bible during the Reformation period in Europe in the 16th and 17th centuries and the development of “modern medicine” which was seen as positive during this period of history that was also called “The Age of Enlightenment,” and the rise of Darwinian evolutionary biology which gave birth to “modern medicine,” the proper English terms for translating this Greek word group have never been used, because they appear in lists of evil actions.

So instead, they used words like “magic”, “sorcery” or “witchcraft” which included “potions” and “poisons”, which is exactly what the pharmaceutical industry produces today, and are then dispensed by pharmacists through their priests, referred to today as “medical doctors” who are the only ones “licensed” to prescribe these products and poison people.

And this truth of how utterly evil the pharmaceutical and medical industry is today, was on full display to the public around the world during COVID.

Even Paul in his New Testament writings warned the believers during that time to avoid pharmakeia/pharmakos which would become prominent during “the last days.” See:

Pharmakeia (magic) vs. Healing from Jesus

The day of the serpent is over! “Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life. ” (John 3:14-15)

The Satanic Roots to Modern Medicine

According to Revelation, medical doctors and those who worship them are not going to be allowed into the Kingdom of God.

God himself is going to heal the nations, but not with magic or witchcraft.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb down the middle of the great street of the city.

On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month.

*And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever. (Revelation 22:1-5)

It is time for all true disciples of Jesus to get out of the medical system, and get out of the Christian religion. The time seems to be very short now before all these events prophesied in Revelation start happening, if they aren't happening already based on current events happening today in the last month of 2023.
